Work in the railroad shops at Tucson has been reduced to eight hours per day.

Nearly four hundred prospectors are developing claims in the Superstition mountains.

The Kingman sampler has discontinued sampling and purchase of ores for the present.

Plenty of rain is reported from the Solomonville region, and cattle are thriving over there.

There have been heavy rains on the upper Verde, and in that region everything is progressing finely.

At Jerome three furnaces are in full blast, and the daily output of copper matte amounts to eighty tons.

It is reported that owing to the low price of copper wages at Bisbee have been reduced from $3.50 to $3.00 a day.

Last week a Mexican from the Castle Creek country took into Prescott a lot of ore worth about $600 per ton.

A number of cases of diphtheria are reported from Williams and Ash Fork, and two deaths have occurred, one at each place.

Grape vines in Goose Flat, near Tucson, that have received no irrigation this year, are looking well and full of grapes.

Ore shipments from Kingman during the month of June were rather light, reaching a total of 265 tons and $53,000 in value.

Mr. E. F. Kellner of Phoenix is looking for artesian water on his rancho west of that city, and he has strong hope of success.

Domestic rabbits are becoming very numerous at Prescott and may be seen hopping around yards and alleys at all hours of the night.

Mear Flagstaff Jose Gomez was bitten by a skunk about four weeks ago. As a consequence he died from hydrophobia last Saturday.

Claims against the Santa Fe, Prescott & Phoenix Railroad to the amount of $130,000 have been filed with the recorder of Yavapai county.

A new placer district on the Santa Maria, near Prescott, shows some rich gold claims and twenty-five to thirty miners' inches of water in the river.

Last Saturday the Fowler Company of Phoenix made a large shipment of hogs to California, quite a demand for porkers having arisen in that direction.

Mariano German was arrested at Tucson last week for a murder committed fifteen years ago, and taken to San Benito county, California to stand trial.

A mass meeting of Mohave county citizens at Kingman last Friday made a fool of itself by endorsing the fool utterances of Colorado's fool chief executive.

Ben Crawford of Graham, succeeds C. C. Eyster as deputy collector of internal revenue in the Tucson office, of which he will take charge the first of August.

People at Kingman seem to have gone crazy. Last Saturday night they burned in edginess the President of the United States because he is an anti-silver man.

At Globe the Old Dominion Copper Company has been obliged to shut down, the coke supply having been cut off by bad roads on the Gila, made so by the recent storms.

The owners of the Canyada del Oro mine recently shipped to their property, from Tucson, 1800 pounds of powder, fuse and caps, to be used in development work.

The Atlantic & Pacific railroad will not submit to the raise on its assessment made by the territorial board of equalization, and will take the matter into the courts.

Sunday of last week Wm. Deering killed a large mountain lion on his rancho west of Prescott. The "varmint" had killed a valuable cow belonging to Mr. Deering.

The Pima county board of equalization is doubling up the assessment of cattle, and owners of lost stock will find their animals on the assessment roll if no where else.

Two large slabs have been taken from the quarry of lithographic stone near Verde, and will be sent to San Diego by the owners, J. A. Parks and John Ross of Prescott.

By ordinance Tucson compels bicycle riders to give notice of their approach by sounding bells, and some of them carry gongs and cowbells to make the required noise.

At Ash Fork last week a brakeman on the Atlantic & Pacific railway lost an eye by a drop of sulphuric acid falling into it from a carboy he was unloading from a freight car.

A telegram received at Tucson Saturday, from Pueblo, "advises shippers to hold their ores until smelters again bid upon this market, which none of them are doing at present."

The new irrigation pumping plant at Willcox is prospering. No failure of water occurred during the late unprecedented dry season, and a big field of alfalfa is growing under it.

A wealthy Navajo named Husteen Teel, who had taken land in severalty and was about to become a citizen, was killed near Tuba City July 5th by the accidental discharge of a pistol.
